The Sov such pr which w from wh	ing a "hard lesson" which will cause a pause before a direct attack on the Soviet Union. According to the Soviet official, American weapons have not lived up to expectations. The Soviet Union now has an opportunity to develop technical perfection and battle experience;  In connection with American and European measures for defense, the Soviet official stated that much time is needed for the development of these measures requiring the full support of labor, which, according to the official, will be reluctant. The general order for Communists will be to transform the imperialist war into a civil war of liberation from the "bourgeois capitalists" tied to American imperialists;  The Soviet official went on to say that if a world war breaks out, all such preparations will be useless in the light of new Soviet weapons, which will be used "without scruple," as this will be the final struggle from which "all can hope to survive, but few are sure to survive";
	with Sp. by the	with Spain included. The Soviet official substantiated this statement by the fact that both Italy and France have inadequate armies to meet the Soviet forces as well as the problem of handling local rebellions; and
